

Extracted Notes

Scheduling and Duty Allocation

The document outlines considerations for scheduling and duty allocation, particularly in a transportation

Topic: Key Areas for Scheduling

The document begins by questioning the necessity of scheduling and how to allocate buses from depots

- Identification

Identify the number of depots.

- Routes

How many routes are there?

- Schedules

How many schedules are currently in place?

The document also mentions the need to establish rules to be followed when scheduling duty managers