

Extracted Notes

Scheduling and Route Allocation

The document discusses the need for scheduling and route allocation, focusing on efficient bus allocation

Topic: Key Considerations for Scheduling

The document poses the question of why scheduling is needed and how buses should be allocated from

- Identification

Identify the number of depots.

- Route Count

How many routes do we have?

- Schedule Count

How many schedules do we have?

The document also mentions the need to establish rules to be followed for scheduling duty management

Prioritize things and create a question list.