

Extracted Notes

Scheduling Considerations

The document outlines key considerations for creating a scheduling system, specifically focusing on bus

Topic: Scheduling System Components

The document starts by questioning the need for scheduling and how to allocate buses from depots. It a

- Key Questions

Identify the number of depots.

- Key Questions

How many routes are there?

- Key Questions

How many schedules do we have?

The document also mentions the need for rules to be followed for scheduling duty managers.

Prioritization of tasks and the creation of a question bank are also noted as important aspects of the sch